Japan's Gray Headed Commanders.

People who maintain that the place for the man over forty years is on the shelf will get no support from the ages of the generals who are leading the conquering forces of Japan. According to the Japanese "Mail," the ages of the foremost generals of the land of the Mikado who are active in the present war are as follows:—

Marquis Oyama (field marshal) - 62
Count Naito - 61
Baron Kuroki (first army) - 60
Baron Oku (second army) - 58
Baron Yamaguchi (fifth division) - 58
Baron Nogi (at the front) - 55
Baron Nishi (second division) - 58
Baron Kodama (chief of staff) - 52
Prince Fushimi (first division) - 46

The Marquis Yamagata, who has been busy with the work of military organization in Japan and active in the war councils at Tokio is 66, and the average of the ages of the distinguished generals who are assisting him is 56 to 57.

Young men have achieved great results in war, but old men in all the centuries have done the same. General Winfield Scott was only 28 at the battle of Chippewa and Lundy's Lane, but he was in his sixty-second year when he led the victorious American army into the City of Mexico. General Zachary Taylor captured Monterey and defeated the hosts of Santa Anna at Buena Vista at the age of 63. Dandolo was 84 when chosen to the office of doge of Venice, and 90 when he led the Venetians in the fourth crusade. At the siege of Constantinople, when he commanded his men to run up to the walls, he was the first who leaped on shore—Mail and Breeze.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. 10-8ml

A Short Course For Farmers.

The Missouri Agriculture College is making preparation to offer an eight week's course of instruction for the benefit of farmers who want to learn more about the problems of production but do not wish to interfere with their regular work. The course will begin January 4, 1904.

The University of Missouri enjoys the distinction of being the oldest state university west of the Mississippi river. The act establishing it was approved February 11, 1839, and Columbia was chosen as its location June 24, 1839. Courses in instruction were begun on April 14, 1841.

Red Fulkerson and Joe Peace played with the Higginsville foot ball team against Wentworth [second team] at Higginsville, Monday. Score, Higginsville 50, Wentworth [second team] 0.—Buckner Tribune.

Football in Fiction.

A marvelous bit of current realism is a story, by James Hopper in the November McQuire, called the "Passing of the Vet." It is the story of the passing football hero and fairly vivifies the football player, and searchingly diagnoses his feelings and emotion. It actually thrills with the spirit of the strenuous game, reflecting all the fierce struggle, the constant battle with pain and weariness and fear, the unending moral conflict, and the attendant vague psychological phenomena. Fighting vainly for his alma mater, the Vet gives his all—his strength, the loved perfection of his body, and lastly his pride of fighting fair within the rules. His reward is the execration of his fellows and the triumph of his rival. None but a man who has played and knows the game, as well as a rare literary artist, could have written so moving and powerful a tale. Mr. Hopper is Kipling-like at home as well as in the Philippines.

CAN YOU EAT?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Texas, says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Dixie.

[The following words of Dixie by Mrs. I. M. Porter Oekendon, Montgomery, Alabama were presented at the last meeting of the National U. S. G., along with scores of others. No adoption has yet been made.]

I.

"In 'Dixie' cotton loves to grow
With leaf of green and boll of snow,
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
Here waves the golden wheat and corn
In Dixie Land where I was born.
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

"Then I wish I was in Dixie,
Hooray! Hooray!
For Dixie Land I'll take my stand
Alive and die in Dixie Land.
Away! Away! Away down South in Dixie.

II.

"In Dixie reddest roses bloom.
The jasmine yields its rare perfume,
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
And here the sea breeze haunts the South
With orange blossoms in its mouth,
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

III.

"In Dixie we love to live
With generous hand, we love to give!
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
With cheerful light and open door,
What matter if the wind does roar?
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

IV.

"The Dixie skies are bonnie blue,
And Southern hearts are warm and true,
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
Let there be love throughout the world,
The pure white flag of peace unfurled.
Floats away! Floats away! Floats away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

V.

"In Dixie Land 'tis sweet to rove
Through piney woods and sweet-gum grove,
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
And hark, the rebel mocking bird
With sweetest song you ever heard,
Sings away! Sings away! Sings away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

VI.

"In other lands 'tis sweet to roam,
But Dixie Land is 'Home, Sweet Home,'
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!
And Southern maid with merry song
Loves dear old Dixie, right or wrong.
Look away! Look away! Look away!
Dixie Land!

Chorus—

"Then God bless the Land of Dixie,
Hooray! Hooray!
For Dixie Land I'll take my stand,
To live or die in Dixie Land,
Away! Away! Away down South in Dixie!"
